

Nathan Hale Boy and Girl Awarded; Names Added To Lion's Club Roster

In February, two new names were added to the Lion's Club-sponsored Boy and Girl of the Month award. They are Rich Prehn and Vicki Wellman, both juniors.

You will probably remember Rich running around with dirty dishes last fall, as head busboy for the "Hoot 'n' Holler" Pancake Dinner. Or if you went to the school Dedication in January, you will remember that he had the honor of being master of ceremonies. Rich is chairman of Boy's Activities and worked avidly for their canned food drive at Christmas time. Aside from supporting school plans and functions, Rich has a commendable academic record, including a high grade point average.

Before coming to Nathan Hale, he went to Jane Addams Junior High School. During his sophomore year he lived in Israel, attending an American school there.

As Girl of the Month, Vicki was chosen because she is "an outstanding assistant to the activity co-ordinator." She also participates in a great number of activities. Aside from being a "quota buster" in last fall's magazine drive, she is a sub-committee chairman of the Ways and Means sales committee and of the Publicity Bulletin committee.

In addition she attends the standards committee meetings and helps in planning the junior dances. Outside of school, Vicki participates in church activities. She works with a group for "Youth Missionaries" and has taught a children's activities group for ages four to twelve.

Songleader Preliminaries Set for May

Girls, do you have a 2.5 grade average, coordination, skill and "peppiness"? Then maybe you'll be one of Nathan Hale's next songleaders! Songleaders must be neat in appearance, have the ability to learn quickly and be able to cooperate with others.

April 10, all girls interested in songleading met in the Little Theater for an orientation.

Preliminaries will be held May 4, in the Little Theater. Semi-finalists will be chosen at that time. During semi-finals candidates will be given a choice of presenting one of two songs. After qualifying as a finalist, each will be taught a routine, by our present songleaders. The manner in which this routine is presented, by each semi-finalist, will determine next year's songleaders.

Preceding the preliminaries will be practice sessions. At these sessions a routine will be taught to candidates. Finals will be held May 12, in the Little Theater. Seven of the twenty-one semi-finalists will be selected at that time.

In order to attain uniformity, during try-outs, all candidates are required to wear a dark full skirt, white blouse and tennis shoes.

Semi-finalists and finalists will be chosen on a point basis. The twenty-one girls with the highest number of points will be the semi-finalists. The top seven from the semi-finalists will be Nathan Hale's next songleaders. To remain a songleader, each girl must maintain at least a 2.5 grade average. Grades are checked at ten- and twenty-week periods. If a songleader fails to achieve a 2.5 or better, she is temporarily eliminated from the squad.

The approximate cost of being a songleader is $100. Songleading try-outs are not open to student observation.

Daisy Petal Picking Theme For Dance

"Daisy Petal Picking," is the theme of the sophomore class dance to be held April 25, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., in the Nathan Hale lunchroom. Music will be provided by Tiny Tony and the Statics.

All students, both sophomores and juniors, are welcome to the dance. Nathan Hale students may bring one guest. Tickets will be sold Saturday, April 25, at the Seattle Park Department Building, on the east side of the school. The cost is 50c. No activity card is necessary for admittance.

Proper dress will be school clothes; jeans and sweatshirts are not allowed.

Constitution Committee Reveals Finished Document

The Constitution Committee is proud to announce its completion of what seemingly may be an unprecedented feat. Within a limit of one school year, an entire Constitution has been written, and is able to be presented to the student body. This publication of The Sentinel enables each student to obtain a copy of the Constitution in its entirety. It is important that you read it and adequately prepare yourself to vote concerning its adoption in the final elections this spring.

Following is the introduction to the document, the preamble of the Constitution of the Associated Students of Nathan Hale High School.

To form an efficient organization of the students, to deal with common problems arising in the student body, to promote a stronger union between students and between students and faculty, to give today's students and tomorrow's leaders an organized medium through which to voice their opinions, and to prepare each student for adult life in a democracy, the Associated Students of Nathan Hale High School hereby establish this constitution.

Article I — (The Student Council)

Section 1: The legislative branch of this organization shall be known as the Student Council and shall consist of one Representative from each roll room and the following ASNH officers: the President, Committee Co-ordinator, Activity Representative, Treasurer, Corresponding Secretary, and Inter-High Executive, each of whom shall have one vote.

Section 2: The Student Council shall be presided over by the ASNH Vice-President, who shall have a tie-breaking vote. The ASNH Recording Secretary shall be responsible for the taking of the minutes of each meeting and shall have no vote.

Section 3: A Parliamentarian shall be elected by the Council from applications filed by students interested in holding that position. All applicants must have at least a 2.0 GPA, and an Activity Card. He shall advise the Council on Parliamentary Procedure, the By-Laws of the Council, and this Constitution. He may interject when he feels the Council has violated any of the sources of regulation mentioned above. He shall not have a vote.

Section 4: In case of the temporary absence of the ASNH Vice-President, the ASNH President shall act as Chairman of the Council. If the Vice-President should become permanently absent, the President shall preside over the Council until a new Vice-President shall be elected as outlined in Article VII, Section 3 of this document.

Section 5: All legislation passed by the Council shall with all due speed be presented to the Executive Cabinet for consideration. If the Cabinet vetoes the bill, it shall be returned to the Council with a written explanation of the veto at the next meeting of that body. This Executive veto may be overridden by a two-thirds majority vote of a quorum of the Council, a quorum being at least three-fourths of the total number of roll rooms. All legislation approved by the Cabinet or passed over its veto shall be presented to the Principal, who shall either declare it valid or veto it. This Administrative veto, although final, must be accompanied by a written explanation.

Section 6: All legislation must originate in the Student Council. It may instruct committees to perform certain tasks. It shall not engage in the work belonging to committees nor shall it engage in the work of members of the Activity Council other than the allocating of funds and the giving of permission to these groups.

Section 7: The Student Council shall meet weekly, beginning on the second Tuesday of the first semester.

Section 8: The Student Council may adopt such rules and By-Laws as it sees fit to provide for its more efficient operation, provided they shall not be inconsistent with this document. These rules or By-Laws shall be kept in written form by the Recording Secretary. In cases which are not covered by this Constitution or the By-Laws of the Council, the Council shall use as a source of procedure the rules outlined in Mister Chairman, a handbook of parliamentary procedure published by Washington State University.

Article II — (The Executive Cabinet)

Section 1: The Executive Branch of this organization shall be known as the Executive Cabinet and shall consist of the following ASNH officers: the President, who shall preside over the Cabinet, be an ex-officio member of all committees, and represent the Cabinet in the Student Council; the Vice-President, who shall preside over the Student Council and represent that body in the Cabinet; the Recording Secretary, who shall record and keep a record of the minutes of the Student Council and the Executive Cabinet; the Corresponding Secretary, who shall handle all correspondence for the Associated Student Body; the Treasurer, who shall assume the chairmanship of the Finance Committee; the Committee Co-ordinator, who shall coordinate and be an ex-officio member of all committees, preside over the Committee Council, and represent that body in the Student Council and the Executive Cabinet; the Activity Representative, who shall preside over the Activity Council and represent that body in the Student Council and the Executive Cabinet; and the Inter-High Executive, who shall be the executive representative of the ASNH on the Seattle Inter-High Council, attend their monthly meetings, report back regularly, and hold any Inter-High Council office to which he may be appointed. All of the above-named officers, with the exception of the Inter-High Executive, shall have a vote in the Executive Cabinet.

Section 2: All of the members of the Executive Cabinet shall be assigned to the Activity Center for their roll room and shall carry on their daily meetings before and during Roll period.

Section 3: The Executive Cabinet shall have the power to veto legislation by a majority vote of its voting members. It may present legislation through the ASNH President. It may instruct committees to perform certain tasks. It shall appoint all Committee Chairmen and may dismiss Chairmen who prove to be inefficient leaders. It shall have emergency legislative powers in cases where the next meeting of the Student Council would prove too late.

Section 4: The Executive Cabinet may adopt such rules and regulations as it sees fit to provide for its more efficient operation, provided they shall not be inconsistent with this document.

Article III — (The Committee Council)

Section 1: The Committee Council shall consist of the Chairmen of all ASNH standing committees and shall be presided over by the ASNH Committee Co-ordinator.

Section 2: All Committee Chairmen shall be appointed from applications submitted to the ASNH Executive Cabinet elect within one week after the final ASNH elections. The Cabinet elect shall choose the Chairmen and make its choices public with all deliberate speed. All Committee Chairmen must maintain a 2.0 GPA and must hold Activity Cards.

Section 3: The Chairmen of the Standards, Safety and Publicity Committees shall serve as Inter-High representatives.

Apathy Shown

Roll Representation Slows Down: Students Receiving All Information?

Recently I attended a Roll Representatives meeting to witness the unveiling of the proposed Constitution.

As is the usual procedure, roll was taken. I was surprised at the number of roll rooms not represented, even though representatives had been informed that this meeting was of an imperative nature.

A general business meeting preceded the Constitution presentation. After this brief period, several girls stood up and left.

"They" do care, reports Mr. Fred Klingback, activity coordinator.

I am left with the impression that the roll room members, whose representatives either were absent or left early, were unaware of the Constitution's presentation and importance.

Roll representative officers and The Sentinel have been working in accordance to present news to the student body.

All roll members should take a careful look at their representative's attendance record. If this is not of a superior standing, students are not receiving much important information to which they are entitled.

Selection of a more reliable representative may be in order in many roll rooms.

Unless the roll representatives care enough to do their jobs, the proposed Constitution will not succeed.

Attending the Cancer Society's 'Meet the Press' April 10, 1964, Susan Hartstein and I learned some jolting facts about cancer.

Smoking effects were brought into focus by three cancer specialists. They were Dr. Robert C. Coe, surgeon; Dr. Walter Ricker, pathologist and Dr. Orlliss Wildermuth, radiation therapist.

Cancer was defined by the panelists as an irregular and uncontrolled growth of living tissue.

Ten times as many smokers than non-smokers die of lung cancer. This was stressed—the more one smokes, the greater the risk.

Deaths from lung cancer have been steadily climbing since 1930. Scientists believe air pollution and smoking contribute to lung cancer.

Why do people smoke? After discussion, Dr. Wildermuth summed up the three panel members' opinion.

One out of four people will develop cancer before they die. Here is an illustration of some facts.

One hundred twenty students are in study hall. Out of 120, 30 will develop cancer before they die.

A second, and more common specie is the handus holder (the squeezer.) This sport finds dolls (high school age) of extreme interest and can frequently be seen displaying his affliction in the halls or hovering over his prey in some doorway or alcove.

Indeed there are others — like the character scattering food and litter in the lunch room. This same specie often finds himself using the Meadowbrook stream to carry off apple cores and ice cream wrappers — he is called "litterus scatterus" (the junk man.)

For these spring "sports" and others like them the idea of an individual challenge has not occurred. There is no other panacea for these illnesses, save individual effort toward self government and maturity.

Alcoholism Problems Stressed. Mr. Richard Silver, Executive Director of a committee on alcoholism, was the guest speaker for Mrs. Roake's Home Living class.

Mr. Silver stated that alcoholism occurred in people who were dissatisfied with themselves or their environment. If a person feels satisfied with himself, his family, his friends, and job, alcohol will have only a limited appeal for him.

Mr. Silver pointed out that anyone can become an alcoholic. Alcoholism is an incurable disease; not a weakness that can be controlled.

"Alcoholics become over-confident. That is why they drive carelessly," said Mr. Silver. "Another reason alcoholics are poor drivers is that their reflexes are slowed."

Misconceptions about alcoholism were also discussed by Mr. Silver. Some people believe only men can become alcoholics.

Another misconception, Mr. Silver mentioned, is that black coffee will cure drunkenness. The coffee will only keep the drunk person awake.

Letters to the Editor

Editor: The Sentinel. Concerning our proposed Alma Mater, "Through time we'll each go our way, but still there'll be ties that stay," is only too true.

It is sad that the second line, "For we'll all remember the years we loved and the school our hearts hold dear," doesn't mean much to some of the students of Nathan Hale.

"For pride, for your honor, for truth we pledge our full faith in your spirit true." This line, if used with right meaning, could be the most important part of the Alma Mater.

"You've much honor due, we salute you, Nathan Hale." A great Alma Mater, but will we live up to it? Larry J. Hill, Nathan Hale Student Editor: The Sentinel. I think the proposed Alma Mater is beautiful and displays the pride Nathan Hale students have for their school.

The Alma Mater will be voted on by the student body, but a date has not as yet been set for this.

Dear Nancy. The Alma Mater will be voted on by the student body, but a date has not as yet been set for this.

Editor: The Sentinel. Recently a proposed Alma Mater was presented to the student body of Nathan Hale. I feel that sheer poetry is involved in this song.

The music holds a definite air of solemnity. Although a few spots need polishing, on the whole the melody is easy to sing.

Mr. Weeks, Judy Steele, Judy Johnson, Claudia Gorbman and Mr. Frisque deserve a great deal of credit for this fine piece of music.

Students seeking employment this summer will be anxious to take advantage of the free advertising space offered in the Seattle Times for Sunday, May 24.

Any high school student may place a three line ad with any realtor displaying the Seattle Real Estate Board ad pennant denoting him as a co-operating realtor.

The sole purpose of the program is to help teenagers obtain employment by furnishing no-cost advertising. It has been recognized that those in need of employment cannot always afford the advertising necessary to obtain a job.

It is suggested that participating students submit their ad copy to their language arts teachers to make certain it is worded in the best possible way.

Reviews Supply Press For Drama Presentation. "Out of the Frying Pan" is good fun, being bright, inventive, and not at all concerned with tiresome probabilities.

These reviews supply a hint of what is to come when the drama department presents "Out of the Frying Pan."

"It's a hilarious show," comments Mrs. Carol Simmons, drama teacher. In addition to major roles, the unsuspecting father of a girl who is trying, along with five others to get into show business, is played by Don Wykes and Tim Young.

As the first Journalism staff of Nathan Hale, we dedicate The Sentinel to you, the student body, faculty, and parents, with expectations that this newspaper will fulfill its purpose of presenting accurate, interesting and timely news.

Orchestra and Band Rated In Debut

Nathan Hale's musical organizations have now all made their official debuts for the Seattle school district. The last two occasions were the All-City Orchestra Festival held at Queen Anne High School April 6 and the All-City Band Festival held at Roosevelt High School April 13.

Like the choir's showing last month, the two groups, under Mr. Robert Frisque, were rated highly. Their performance in each case consisted of playing for the groups of the other high schools and being rated by judges.

Both musical organizations were rated 2 plus. A number 1 rating is the highest, while a number 5 is the lowest.

The orchestra played three pieces. First was "Il Re Pastore," an overture composed by Mozart at the age of 13. Next came an Air and Courante for orchestra by Telemann. The third piece came as a surprise to both audience and judges. It was Henry Mancini's "Baby Elephant Walk."

Mr. Frisque was quite pleased with the rating received by the orchestra and band. On April 13, the band played two pieces: Themes from Wagner's opera "Rienzi," and "Three Scenes" by Harold Walters.

"It was just luck that I was chosen," Haleite Barbara Baldwin stated when interviewed concerning her recent performance in the Rogers and Hammerstein musical "Carousel." Barbara was singled out of the "Amahl and the Night Visitors" cast by director Ralph Rosinbum to be a chorus member in the future "Carousel" production.

Opera and voice lessons as a child started Barbara on her way toward a musical career. At the age of 12 she won a musical scholarship enabling her to continue her studies minus the burden of cost.

Barbara's costume for "Carousel" was reminiscent of the 1800's. Her part in the chorus put her on stage most of the musical giving her a chance to sing, dance, and deliver one line of dialogue.

Rehearsals for "Carousel" began about 2-1/2 weeks prior to opening night. The 4 hour long rehearsals were held 2 nights a week and lengthened into nightly practices just before the first performance.

Barbara described the cast as "very professional," "wonderful people to work with." She was most impressed by "Carousel" star John Raitt. "His voice sends shivers up and down your spine," was her descriptive comment.

Barbara found that participating in "Carousel" gave her "just a little bit of self-confidence and maturity." She mentioned that she now finds it easier to talk to people her own age.

She is looking forward to the chance to teach next fall in Kirkland, Washington.

Do you suffer from that teenage affliction, hysterical parents, commonly referred to as screaming parents? Does your father send you into the cold, watery gloom of the dishpan just when your favorite friend calls you on the telephone? Does your mother burst into tears and sob, "My baby, my poor baby," when you enter the room? Do your teachers refer to you as the worm in the shiny apple? Are you unloved, mistreated, and underdressed?

Well, never fear; Millicent Haleway is here! True to her motto, she follows in the tradition of Superman and Mike Mailway, leading Nathan Hale students ever onward into who knows what. Her adoring fans have formed clubs where they can pour out their broken hearts in a tear-stained letter written in passionate purple, perfumed ink. # Honor Society Qualifications Presented

"Encouraging scholarship among Nathan Hale students is the main purpose and function of the Nathan Hale Honor Society," explained Linda Fast, Honor Society President.

The 102 members of the Honor Society are acting as a committee to organize an Honor Society which will be a tradition and an honor to our school. The members are setting up procedures, determining who is qualified for membership and checking lists of citizenship, activity and scholarship points.

"What we want to do is make this a student organization," remarked Mr. William Brockman, Honor Society adviser. The Honor Society should stimulate scholarship as well as leadership among students and be a credit to Nathan Hale.

To be on the Honor Society, membership is not based on grades alone. Citizenship and leadership are carefully looked into regarding each applicant.

At present, two smaller committees within the Honor Society have been formed. The elections committee, headed by Brad Fowler, sets up the procedure for the election of Honor Society officers. Both sophomores and juniors may run for any office, but each candidate must be a present member of the Honor Society. The Honor Society primary election will be held on May 11. An assembly for all members of the Honor Society will then be held to introduce the finalist candidates. The final election will be May 18th. Honor Society officers include: President, Vice President, and Secretary.

Claudia Gorbman and Chris Sandberg are in charge of the membership committee. It is their purpose to encourage qualified students to apply for the Honor Society and to also impress upon students the importance of good grades, citizenship and leadership.

The Honor Society is a group of students who are interested in getting good grades and being of service to their school. In return the members of the Honor Society will receive recognition by their school, community and most of all themselves.

that he has spent a lot of his time with the zoo, but, he says, doing what is uncertain.

When asked if he had anything to comment on, Mr. Eaton replied, "Some student teachers made it to Heaven—we were sent to Hale!"

Mrs. Linda Gaffney

Mrs. Linda Gaffney was born in Vancouver, Washington. She attended Eisenhower High School in Yakima.

Her hobbies are shared with her husband Mr. David Gaffney. He is a pre-law student at the University of Washington. These hobbies consist of water skiing, horseback riding, and cooking.

Mrs. Gaffney, an English major, is the cadet of Mrs. Aristelle Macdonald. She is very much impressed with Nathan Hale's students and building. She is very grateful at having the opportunity to be a cadet at Nathan Hale.

Mrs. Reta Williams

Mrs. Reta Williams is the cadet teacher assigned to Mr. Connor Reed for the Spring Quarter. Mrs. Williams is a native Seattleite and comes to us from the University of Washington. Language Arts is her major and her special interest in this field is public speaking, especially oral interpretation. Mrs. Williams comes to us a newlywed having been married for just three months.

Mr. Arthur Hansel

Unlike most cadets, Mr. Arthur Hansel, is teaching under the guidance of 5 teachers in the Mathematics Department: Mr. Hunt, Mr. Davis, Mr. Schold, Mr. Callow, and Mr. Brooks.

Mr. Hansel has lived in Seattle all his life, attending Garfield High School, and the University of Washington. When he started at the University of Washington he had planned to enter the field of Engineering, but switched because the routine was boring. He graduated with his Masters last quarter from the University.

He will enter the Army on July 20, and will be enlisted for 2 to 3 years.

In his spare time he plays golf.

Library Week Stresses Better Read America

The seventh annual National Library Week was held April 12-18. Its theme was "Reading is the key." This branches into four derivative themes; "Reading is the key to opportunities, to new worlds, to understand, and to the 20th century."

National Library Week is a year-round reading and library development program. Efforts to bring about "a better read, better informed America" result in setting up and publicizing this one week to stimulate people to read and to draw attention to the services of libraries. It emphasizes the use of paperbacks and television to stimulate student reading.

National Library Week is sponsored by the National Book Committee and the American Library Association. It has the support of forty-five leading magazines and many national associations.

The late President Kennedy said of National Library Week, "The library is not only the custodian of our cultural heritage but the key to progress and the advancement of knowledge . . . Libraries must grow and adapt to changing requirements and conditions . . . it is shocking that over 40,000 schools attended by ten million young Americans have no library at all."

Students who are stimulated by National Library Week have a wonderful opportunity to find "the key to opportunity, new worlds, understanding, and the 20th century," in Nathan Hale's library. It contains almost 7,000 books. There are 123 periodicals ordered for next year. Mrs. Geraldine MacAdam, head librarian, reports this to be a good start for the library. The reference section is excellent.

Nathan Hale Faculty Member Writes Book Concerning Italian Memoirs

"When I first got to Italy," mused Mr. Frank Roberts, head of the history department, "I constantly found myself criticizing Italian customs. I thought, 'Why can't they be more like us?' But by the end of my stay, I was beginning to think, 'Why can't we be more like them?'"

Mr. Roberts' year-long trip was in 1958-1959. He was on a Fulbright exchange program, teaching English in a Milan, Iyeco, comparable to an American high school. He also traveled in Rome, Southern Italy, and Sicily.

He has written his experiences and impressions into a book named Oriundo Diary for which he is now seeking a publisher. An Oriundo is a person of Italian parentage who is a citizen of another country.

He remarked that there were no basic differences between the average American teenager and the average Italian one. However, he noted that they are more excited in political matters. Discussions concerning Italian politics often became heated due to the various political parties represented by the students, and the complex state of Italian affairs.

For instance, one day he was reading to the class an article concerning the current Premier of the country. The period was over before he could finish it, so he resumed reading it the next day. The students reacted strangely to the article the second day. They informed him that during the interim, the premier had been deposed and there was a new one in power.

"Access To Information" Supported By Governor

By Nancy Kellogg

"I believe in having as much open knowledge as possible in any area, but especially in the area of government," stated Governor Albert Rosellini at the National Library Week Press Conference for high school newspaper editors. Governor Rosellini illustrated his support of the statewide theme for Library Week, "Freedom Of Access To Information," by answering all questions from high school representatives regarding any aspect of school or governmental policies.

Concerning lowering the voting age in the state of Washington, Governor Rosellini feels that "the voting age should be set at 18. I have always favored this." Regarding a query on capital punishment, he replied, "If a bill were before me now to abolish capital punishment, I would not veto it."

Following the interview with the Governor, the representatives were shown through the Legislative Building. This tour was highlighted by introduction to State Auditor and Secretary of State.

After luncheon in the Governor's Mansion, the representatives proceeded to the State Library. Mr. Louis Bruno, Superintendent of Public Instruction, summed up the purpose of our schools and ourselves by declaring, "Education is not to develop the characteristics of a storehouse. The mind must not alone be a place to accumulate facts . . . We have the responsibility to look to the past to help guide the principles of our nation in the future."

Maryann E. Reynolds, State Librarian since 1951, explained the plan of program type in the terms of library progress. When she began as State Librarian, 60% of the schools in Washington had no library facilities. At present time, 67% have good libraries and 92% have at least some facilities. She explained that the state library contains periodicals, children's books by Washington authors, novels and a wide variety of newspapers. "This library," she further commented, "is also a depository of documents of Washington and other states."

The conference was held in Olympia on April 18; 62 schools in western Washington were represented.

Students Review Books for Library

ENTER, CONVERSING, by Clifton Fadiman, is the kind of book that is of extreme interest especially to every average person. It is a collection of Mr. Fadiman's essays, the bulk of which are his candid observations of different aspects of modern society, and his position in relation to them. Subjects discussed range from Dr. Seuss to American eating habits to mail-order catalogues.

His opinions are not earthshaking, his subjects are not headline news, and his conclusions will not long remain imprinted upon the reader's mind. It is his own treatment of the material that makes each essay shine. They are scholarly, and yet light and humorous. For the thoughtful reader, there is much occasion for expansion on ideas; for the less profound reader, the selections provide many hours of simple reading enjoyment.

FREEDOM RIDE, James Peck. Simon and Schuster, 1962.

James Peck is a Caucasian, a leader of important CORE activities and was for a time a Freedom Rider. He gives a history of non-violence in the integrationist movement in the South. Most of it is an eye-witness account. It consists not only of the 1961 freedom rides themselves, but also of previous lesser-known activities which led up to them, such as bus boycotts, sit-ins, and marches. There is also a section on the de facto segregation in the North; the problem is magnified somewhat out of proportion so as to deserve importance in the book.

The chapters on the actual freedom rides are by far the most powerful because the author participated in the rides and could tell the story himself. There are accounts of men who got themselves in penitentiaries rather than slow the non-violent campaign. Peck, for the sake of the movement, walked into the hands of a white mob and received fifty-three stitches in his head as a result.

Sensationalism and lengthy points of view are successfully avoided; by mere statement of fact, points are more than adequately driven across. Freedom Ride ends somewhat inconclusively, however—in the two final paragraphs, the author suddenly discusses the possibility of Negro supremacy groups rising to power. There are no previous allusions to this idea.

LEONARD BERNSTEIN — The Man, His Work, and His World, John Briggs, 1961.

This is, in general, a well-presented biography of Leonard Bernstein. It is written to interest primarily the layman in the field of music. It accentuates the role of Bernstein's character in effecting his "meteoric" rise to the conductorship of the New York Philharmonic.

Although it states that Bernstein's success was not out of luck, it stresses, in spite of itself, Bernstein's tremendous good chance in having risen to such a distinguished position. Because it avoids discussing the musician in any detail whatever, one is continually reminded of the man's luck and personality, not his work.

The book tends to dramatize situations in a man's life that are not worthy of such treatment at all. In more than one instance is portrayed Bernstein's ability to work under pressure and to get out of tight fixes. Granted, Bernstein has a wonderful personality, but the average layman wouldn't even object to a biography on a more musically sophisticated level.

(Ed. Note: Mrs. Geraldine McAdam has several books ready for student reviews. Any student wishing to review a book must receive Language Arts teacher's permission. The books may be obtained from Mrs. McAdam before or after school in the library. Reviews will then be turned into The Sentinel office, room 103, for publication. We reserve the right to edit all material.)

By Jim Phillips

In the vast expanses of Northern King and Southern Snohomish Counties there are four Metro League high schools: Shoreline, Shorecrest, Terrace and Edmonds. Meadowdale, the newest North-of-Seattle high school, is not a member of the Metro League and a quick glance into the future reveals it probably never will be. There are two reasons Meadowdale has been excluded from the Metro League. First, there are 16 high schools presently in the league — 8 in the Northern division, and 8 in the Southern division, and if Meadowdale entered that would produce an unequal number of schools — thus causing many scheduling problems. The second reason for the exclusion of Meadowdale from the Metro League is that it has made no real effort to enter.

Instead of Meadowdale pleading to enter the league, its independent presence has caused a stir up north. Edmonds and Terrace are seriously considering withdrawing from the Metro League and joining with Meadowdale and another proposed and soon to be built rural high school. This 4-school league may later expand to include the two other out-of-the-city high schools, Shorecrest and Shoreline.

If and when Edmonds and Terrace take another sports road, this would reduce the Metro League to 14 schools. Thus forcing Lincoln (which was placed in the southern division upon Nathan Hale's entrance into the city league) to once again become a northern division school. There will be just one question to answer if and when Edmonds and Terrace drop out to form another league. Who will Nathan Hale have to beat?

On April 4, Kitty Stokoe and Barbara Baker represented N.H.H.S. at an all-city badminton tournament which was held at Ingraham High School. Misses Stokoe and Baker won a match against the Ballard duet, but lost two games—one to Lincoln's team and the other to Roosevelt. Kitty and Barbara were chosen for this competition in a series of singles elimination matches between Nathan Hale girls on April 2.

Mr. Hy Zimmerman, a well-read Seattle Times reporter, has helped Nathan Hale High School through the many articles he has written concerning the Raider football and basketball team. Mr. Zimmerman's long list of feature articles on Nathan Hale athletes and athletics began last summer before the school was finished and continued into the winter months. The "Sentinel" sports was sad to learn that Mr. Zimmerman suffered a heart attack this winter which forced him into temporary retirement—but you cannot keep a good man down. Since March 20, Mr. Zimmerman has been in Florida covering the Seattle Rainiers' training and exhibition games. "Sentinel" sports staff would like very much to wish Mr. Zimmerman "the best of luck and many, many more years of good reporting."

Raiders Score Double Win On Diamond And Track

Nathan Hale Harriers Victorious In Out-distancing Terrace Hawks

The Nathan Hale trackmen won their first varsity track meet April 10 by defeating the Mountlake Terrace Hawks 64-45. Hale's winning squad competed against Terrace at the Edmonds stadium, home of all North Division meets, where they out-ran and out-jumped the Hawks despite blustery winter weather.

This victory meet was only the second in which the Hale Harriers competed. Raider athletes won seven of the thirteen events and took all of the honors in the broad jump and 440-yard run.

120 High Hurdles—Hale's Stafford took first place by running and jumping the 120 yards in 16½ seconds. Mountlake Pfeiffer placed second while another Raider, Powell, came in third.

180 Low Hurdles—Haleite Powell placed first in this event closely followed by teammate Stafford. Pfeiffer took third place for Terrace.

100-Yard Dash—White of Mountlake Terrace placed first followed by two Raiders, Kush and Gilbert.

220-Yard Dash—Kush of Nathan Hale crossed the finish line first, 25.5 seconds after the starting gun had sounded. In second place was White of Mountlake Terrace, with Gilbert of Hale placing third.

440-Yard Run—This event belonged exclusively to Nathan Hale as three Raiders, Waite, McClain, and Linde, finished one, two, three and thus captured nine team points.

880-Yard Run—Terrace's Lee placed first while Whittaker and Staab placed second and third for Hale.

1 Mile Run—Terrace took the top two positions in this event as Pfeiffer and Giger crossed the finish line ahead of Raider Beal.

1 Mile Relay—The Terrace unit of Houghtaling, Branpton, Webb, and Buggenstos out-distanced the Hale four to win this event and five points toward their team's total.

880-Relay—Hale returned to its winning ways as Anderson, Waite, Powell, and Gilbert sprinted the half mile in 1:40.4 to capture this relay event.

Shot Put—Hawks, Pfeiffer and Giger, placed first and second while red, white, and blue clad Shank earned third spot for Hale.

High Jump—Raiders Mays and Bennet tied for first honors in this event by clearing 5'8". Shabro for Terrace came in third.

Broad Jump—This event was the second contest in which Raiders gained all of the honors. Lawyer, Wiley, and Rocheleau placed one, two, three to give Nathan Hale nine more team points.

Pole Vault—Schmidt of Terrace placed first followed by West and Littlejohn for Nathan Hale.

Totalling-up the entire meet, Nathan Hale had 7 first, 7 second, and 9 third place finishes for 64 points. Mountlake Terrace captured 6 first, 4 second, and 2 third place finishes for 45 points.

As this first varsity track victory was in the making Nathan Hale's baseball players were also in the midst of capturing their first varsity win by upsetting the Ballard Beavers.

Raiders Miss Again! Lose To Tigers

Nathan Hale's fast running and determined trackmen narrowly missed their second victory of the season by dropping a close dual meet to the Edmond Tigers, 63 to 46.

The contest took place last Friday, April 18, at Edmonds stadium and despite wintry weather, both squads made fine showings. In the running events Hale and Edmonds staged a nip-and-tuck battle, neither team ever gaining a substantial lead.

120-Yard High Hurdles—A clean sweep for Nathan Hale as Powell, Stafford, and Grant finished one, two, three—the fastest time was 17.8 seconds.

180 yard low hurdles—First place was captured by Tiger runner, Evans, with Raiders, Furman, and Powell placing second and third.

100 yard dash—Edmonds runners, Smart and Evans took the two top positions, with Haleite Gilbert finishing a close third. 200 yard dash—Edmonds placed first and third with Smart and Grubb, while second place went to Raider, Gilbert.

440-Yard Run—Raiders, Waite and Linde finished one, two, with Tigerman Randolph in third position.

880 yard run—Edmonds runners Erickson and Haskett took first and second while Haleite, Peters placed third.

1 Mile Run—Edmonds' Evans crossed the finish line first followed closely by Raiders, Beal and Nelles.

1 Mile Relay and 880 Relay—Both of the relays were won by the Edmonds units. In the field events the Raiders kept up their battle for a second straight track victory.

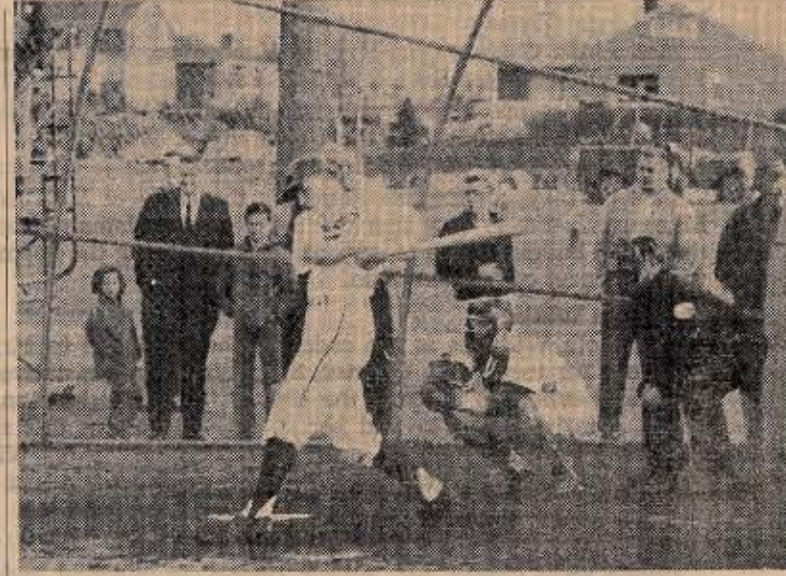

Hale athletes continued to stay in pace with Edmonds, until the shot put—when the Tigermen seized all of the honors.

High Jump—Hale jumpers, Mays and Bennett placed one, two, while McNall of Edmonds finished third.

Broad Jump—Vander of the Tigers leaped into first place while Wiley and Rowe of Hale placed second and third.

Pole Vault—Smith of Edmonds placed first, but Littlejohn and West from Hale took second and third.

Shot Put—In this field event Edmonds took all of the points with Tigermen, Zabrilki, Gibbons and Bingham placing one, two, three.

STRIKE ONE! Raider batter Russ Chase fans the Ballard pitch as he attempts to help his team to take its first varsity victory from the Beavers.

Raiders Beat Ballard

Raiders Win First League Victory

On Friday, April 10, the Nathan Hale Raiders gained their first varsity baseball win of this premier season by downing the Ballard Beavers 7 to 4.

The game, played on the Beavers home field, was an upset as the Raider nine, undaunted by an early Ballard lead, fought back to finally defeat the Beavers.

The Raiders, led by the fine pitching of junior, Brad Gunn, were able to hold the Ballard hitters to only five hits the entire game. Even though Gunn struck out nine Beavers, the Ballard-ites rallied in the third inning to score three runs upping the Ballard tally to a 4 to 2 lead.

The Beavers cautiously held on to their two point lead until the fifth inning, when the Hale batmen, led by sophomore Mike Leslie, staged a four-run scoring comeback to again take the lead six to four. From that inning on, the Raiders remained in complete control of the contest. The Raider batters again scored. All afternoon they were piloted by Leslie's fine performance at the plate which saw him hit two singles and a triple.

Scots Grant Raiders Second Metro League Victory Friday

The Nathan Hale Raider baseball team, after taking a hard loss at the hands of the Terrace Hawks, came back the following Friday to beat the favored Shorecrest Highlanders.

The Raiders, playing at their home field, had to fight from behind to beat the Highlanders.

Shorecrest got off to a quick start scoring two runs in the first inning. They held on to their lead until the fourth inning when Raider Mike Leslie tripled, followed by a single by Ron Case who scored Leslie. Valdez followed Case with a walk and then on a single by Don Olson, Case came across with the tying run.

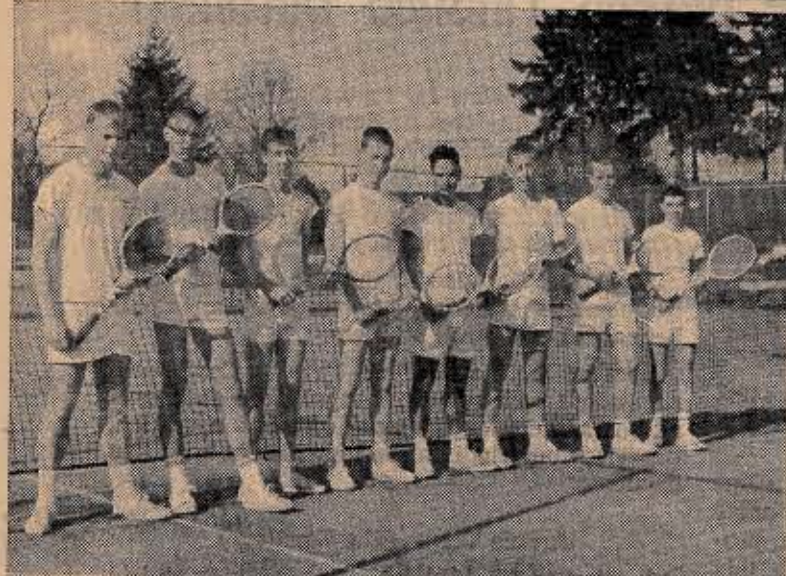

Shorecrest wasted no time in regaining the lead as they scored two runs in the sixth to bring the score to four to two in favor of the Scots.

As the bottom of the seventh rolled around things were looking bad for the Raiders. The situation soon brightened with consecutive walks by Don Olson and John Brown, and a single by Steve Miller. They were followed by Brad Gunn and Mike Leslie who both singled. Then, Ron Case singled to left field to drive in the winning run.

Nathan Hale Jumper Sets United States Junior Record

On March 14, 1964 in Spokane, Washington, Marilyn Saling set a new National United States Junior record in high jumping, while competing against people from the United States and Canada. She received a gold medal and an Amateur Athletic Union Championship shield.

The Falcon Track Team, to which Marilyn belongs, took second place in competition. Now, Marilyn is looking forward to her next meet which will be held at the Vancouver Relays on May 8, 1964. She will compete against the World Indoor Women's Senior High Jumping Champion. Marilyn practices from five o'clock to seven o'clock in the morning. After school she works out from three-thirty to six-thirty. She said, "I plan a good season."

Our victorious Nathan Hale tennis team, on April 14, continued their winning ways by defeating the Edmonds Tigers at Edmonds' courts. It was close throughout the match, however, the Raiders managed a comeback in the final doubles matches to win.

Both teams split the singles matches, each team winning three games. The scores were as follows:

John Leighton (Edmonds) beat Clark Gray (Nathan Hale), 6-4, 3-6, and 6-1; Dave Niebruegge, 6-0 and 6-2; Tim Rechar (Nathan Hale) defeated Dick Baldwin, 6-3 and 6-1; Fred Jackson (Edmonds) edged Raider Dennis Otey, 4-6 and 6-3; and Tiger Mike Pittis edged John Maki (Nathan Hale), 6-3 and 6-4.

In the doubles play, the Raiders edged the Tigers, two matches to one. The following are the scores of the doubles matches: Leighton and Pittis (Edmonds) defeated Raiders Clark Gray and Keith Bogus, 6-2 and 6-3; Raiders Brad Fowler and Tim Reckard beat Baldwin and Jenkins, 6-1 and 6-1. This set the stage for Dick Huey and John Maki as they won the deciding match from Tigers McInnis and Niebruegge, 6-4 and 6-2. The final score showed the Raiders on top, 5-4.

Raiders Topped by Beavers

On April 8, the Raider netmen lost their first league game to the Ballard Beavers at the Ballard courts. The Raiders were edged in the final doubles and lost by the score of 5-4. The Hale tennis team's next opponent is the Ingraham Rams. The match site is at Lower Woodland on April 24.

Raiders Defeated By Mighty Rams

On Tuesday, April 7, the Raiders went down to defeat to the highly-rated Ingraham Rams. Through four innings, both teams were engaged in a scoreless deadlock due to the strong pitching of Raider Mike Valdez and Ram Mike Gerteis.

Shortstop Rick Allan, toward the end of the game, turned in a double play termed "excellent" by his teammates.

Nathan Hale's single run was scored in the seventh inning. Ron Case started the rally with a single. He moved to second, then scored when pinch hitter Don Olson batted a single.

This closed the scoring as Ingraham won, 5 to 1.

College Concert Plays for Students

Nathan Hale's gym rang out with a variety of musical numbers as the Western Washington State Concert Choir performed for the student body on the morning of April 17.

Dr. Bernard Regier directed the Choir. Dr. Regier is coordinator of vocal activities, teaches voice and is an instructor in choral techniques and conducting.

During the fifty minute assembly, the Concert Choir presented "Alleluia! We Sing With Joy," by Jacob Handl; "Miserere mei," by Antonio Lotte; "Kyrie Eleison," by Houston Bright; "Benedictus and Hosanna," by Houston Bright; "Up Sprang a Birch Tree Overnight," by Antonin Dvorak; "Laughing Song," by Earl George; and "Songs Mein Grossmama Sang" by Lloyd Pfautsch.

Student director Dale Mattson led the Concert Choir in a selection, "Deep River."

The Vocolegians, a smaller group, sang the selections "Now is the Month of Maying," by Thomas Morley; "Begone Dull Care," by Gordon Jacobs; "It Was a Lover and His Lass," by Theron Kirk. Director of the Vocolegians was Mr. Delbert Simon. Mr. Simon, also director of the College Chorus, teaches voice. The choir presentation received a standing ovation from the Nathan Hale students. They responded with an encore. Ron Case acted as Master of Ceremonies. Students participating in the flag ceremony were Emily See, Esther Walker, Pam Stamm, Crystal Nelson, Dallas Cochran and Steve Thomas.

Continuous Work Basis for Success "Carousel" Stars Offer Good Advice

By Sandy Hullinger, Emily See, Esther Walker

Acting is a career dreamed of by many, but attained by only those who have both the talent and the perseverance to stick to the ups and downs of such a career. Two such people are John Raitt and Karen Sargent, both of whom recently starred in a Greater Seattle production, "Carousel." Performances were held April 14-19.

Mr. Raitt is a veteran of the New York musical stage, having starred in countless performances of musicals such as, "Pajama Game", "Oklahoma", and "Carousel." He has worked in over 1,000 performances of "Carousel" alone.

When asked how he got into show business, Mr. Raitt said that he had been a Physical Education major in College. In 1940 he was planning to participate in the football throw competition in the Olympics at Helsinki, Finland. However, the games were cancelled when Helsinki was bombed during World War II. Friends then convinced him to go into singing as a career.

Mr. Raitt still holds the record in California for the football throw, with a distance of 220 feet.

Karen Sargent is a tiny, vivacious blond who stars as Carrie in "Carousel." She is originally from Butte, Montana, where she was the drum majorette for her high school band and valedictorian of her class. Although Miss Sargent was not in the high school productions, soon afterward she began training and taking small parts. One of her teachers in New York was a dancer from Seattle.

When asked how she became an actress, Miss Sargent said that she developed her acting career through hard work. In addition to voice training, she feels every actor should have experience in dance work, for freedom of expression. According to Miss Sargent, voice projection is the most important basic quality of an actor. Miss Sargent also said, "Every moment, an actor must be conscious of what he is doing — every movement, every word, every facial expression must be calculated."

A typical day in New York for Miss Sargent is made up of rushing to meet lessons, auditions, and practices.

Miss Sargent's advice to prospective actors and actresses is, "Study hard, learn how to sing and dance. Don't expect too much." Although the acting profession is thought of as difficult to get into, Miss Sargent feels that any profession takes a lot of work: to be a doctor or a lawyer takes many years of training, too. Continuous work is the basis for a successful career.

Miss Sargent said that one of the nice things about acting is its immediate reward from the audience. Among the productions Miss Sargent has played in are, "All American," "Little Mary Sunshine," and "Carousel." She has worked with such stars as Robert McCollough and Ray Bolger.

One thing commonly expressed by both Mr. Raitt and Miss Sargent was a great love for the Theater and the plays in which they act.

Student Scientists Will Observe Basic Research

Cameron Brown and Brad Fowler have been selected from Nathan Hale to attend the Junior Science and Humanities Symposium at the University of Washington.

The symposium will give public recognition to participating students and teachers and to their schools. Moreover, it will give the participants an opportunity to observe first hand basic research in various areas of science, to converse with working scientists in university and local industrial laboratories, to participate in small group discussions and to make inquiries into career opportunities in science.

THE 1965 NATHAN HALE SENIOR PIN will have a silver border with red background and silver letters. The pin is of two-piece construction with a silver chain and guard.

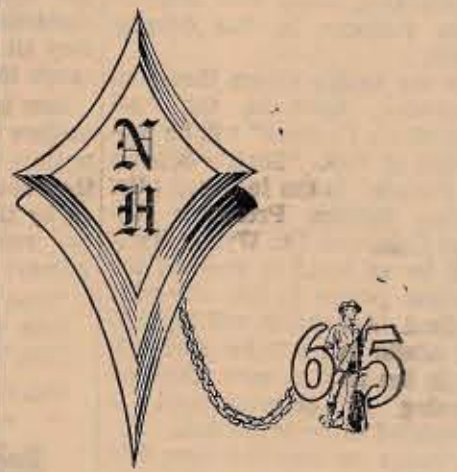

The Nathan Hale Senior pin for the graduating class of 1965 has been chosen by the soon-to-be Senior class and the pins are being manufactured.

The company which submitted the final design chosen by the will-be Seniors, was the Gould Company, located in Seattle.

The Gould Company guarantees all pins against defects in manufacturing and workmanship. They will fix or replace any pin which has any such defects. The pins will be on sale the last week of May. Any Senior (a student with the required amount of credits) may buy his or her pin during one of the lunch hours. If a pin is lost or a new student wishes to buy a Senior pin, they may obtain one next year from the Gould Company, according to the committee chairman, Jim Phillips.

The price of the 1965 Senior pin will be $3.35. This price includes the ten percent Federal excise tax and the four percent Washington state sales tax.

Home Economics Conference Held

Mrs. Joan Northfield, the department head of Home Economics, took Anita Johnson and Linda Demonbrun to a Home Economics Conference held at the University of Washington. Selected juniors and seniors who plan to major in this field were invited.

A tour was given throughout the Home Economics buildings. Included in the tour was the Home Management House. Here the seniors live for one quarter and do all the housekeeping. This includes cooking and flower arranging among others. The girls also toured the Commons where all the meals are made and served. In this particular building dieticians are trained.

A panel discussion was held by the college senior girls. They discussed what areas of Home Economics a person could take if planning to major in this field. The "open house" was held in the school of Home Economics.

The girls were introduced to Dr. Johnson, head of the University's Home Economics Department.

Girls who attended this annual conference came from all parts of Washington State. This year's conference took place on April 10 from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

New Activities Planned

Nathan Hale will be the scene of many varied and diversified activities during the next few weeks. Starting off the medley of action will be a dance, sponsored by the Sophomore Class, on April 25th from 8:30 to 11:30. "Daisy Petal Pickin'" is the theme of this Saturday night event. Tiny Tony and The Statics will be on hand for the evening's entertainment and dancing fun.

The following Monday, April 27, certain representatives from Nathan Hale's coaching staff, will be on hand at Jane Addams Junior High. They will present potential system. Our school is anticipating many fine athletes from Addams in the coming years.

At the Seattle Opera House on Thursday, April 30, the "All City Music Festival" will be presented at 7:45. "Seattle Schools on Parade" is the featured title. Milton Katims, Professor William Cole, and Dr. Wynne Hertz will be on hand to conduct the various groups in this city-wide festival. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and $.35 for students. As in the past, a very excellent evening of entertainment is scheduled to be presented.

Finally, on May 2nd from 5:00 to 9:00 p.m., Nathan Hale, in co-operation with the Lake City Lions and Lake City Vigilantes, will present "Springhetti." A complete and very satisfying meal will be presented at very reasonable prices.

by Claudia Gorbman

I was so impressed with the danged loveliness of the following poem that I considered it my duty to share it with you. It was written by a poet I know, now 78, in his youth. He wrote it in the first humor column of his high school paper, and has never improved since.

"Hark, hark, I hear a lark. Now let me think— It must be sprink."

Which all leads to the subject of spring, I suppose. Ah, Spring! Ah, this most ethereal of equinoctial phenomena! It is the season of the year when we can go out from the lunchroom at noon and enjoy the concrete beauty of nature on the quadrangle. It is when we have aspiring visions of having campaigns for purple-flavored ice cream sandwiches to eat at lunch instead of those dull old mundane bright green ones.

It reminds me of that sage old Japanese haiku eulogizing the wonder of life:

The skwishy toad hops from lily to lily and then misses and drowns.

Spring is when we notice that we don't overly freeze outside during fire drills, and actually kinda wish that there were more of them to fill up our days.

Now that the sun is beginning to shine down with a little oomph, you can observe an occurrence which comes only in spring. Lots of people are beginning to open their car windows and arrange their arms on 'em so they can get the maximum amount of sunlight possible to get suntanned. They look so sophisticated and nonchalant, as they sit there struggling and arrange their arms.

Now is when next year's song-leaders are practicing for the tryouts next month. Why can't they revive that old yell invented by the 78-year-old poet when he rooted for his baseball games?

"Iron 'em out Iron 'em out Iron 'em out SMOOOOOOOOOOOTH."

Debators Victorious

Debators Marilyn Shapton and Brice Dudman beat Franklin's debate team at Franklin High School on Thursday, March 19. This gives the Nathan Hale Debate Team four wins. The other victories were over Mountlake Terrace, Ingraham, and Ballard.

On April 2, 3, and 4, the Nathan Hale debators competed at an all-city debate held at Seattle Pacific College. The event was an elimination debate, with the best teams in finals on Saturday.

Needy Families Helped

The clothing drive was held March 16-20 and was under the direction of chairman, Jill Thatcher. Clothes found in good condition were distributed to needy families. The clothes were turned into the roll rooms and stored in boxes. Competition was held between juniors and sophomores.
